JUNE 2024 HIGHLIGHTS

Furiosa: A Mad Max Saga

NOW PLAYING • DOWNTOWN

As the world fell, young Furiosa is snatched from the Green Place of Many Mothers and falls into the hands of a great Biker Horde led by the Warlord Dementus. Sweeping through the Wasteland they come across the Citadel presided over by The Immortan Joe. While the two Tyrants war for dominance, Furiosa must survive many trials as she puts together the means to find her way home.

Hollywood's sultry past meets its provocative present in a series of erotic thrillers designed to reignite the flames of desire.

A Quiet Place: Day One

OPENS JUN 27 • DOWNTOWN

Experience the day the world went quiet. A woman named Sam must survive an invasion in New York City by bloodthirsty alien creatures with ultrasonic sound hearing.

I Saw the TV Glow

NOW PLAYING • UPTOWN

After taking the indie horror circuit by storm with We're All Going to the World's Fair, Jane Schoenbrun returns with this eerie slice of reality-fking cinema, as two lonely suburbanites find solace and obsession in a late-night TV show.

Ghostlight

OPENS JUN 21 • UPTOWN

A tender and heartwarming drama about a construction worker who is pulled into a local production of "Romeo and Juliet," only to find community and a way to work through his own family troubles. Co-starring Dolly de Leon (Triangle of Sadness).

Thelma

OPENS JUN 21 • UPTOWN

Oscar® nominee June Squibb (Nebraska) stars as the titular 93-year-old character who, when she is scammed out of $10,000, embarks on a daring mission across Los Angeles to recover her money by any means necessary. Featuring one of Richard Roundtree's final performances.

Babes

NOW PLAYING • UPTOWN

In her feature directorial debut, Pamela Adlon ("Better Things," "King of the Hill") joins forces with star/co-writer Ilana Glazer ("Broad City") in this hysterical, no-holds-barred comedy about a woman who gets pregnant after a one-night stand.

Know Your Place

MAY 31-JUN 6 • UPTOWN

Seattle's issues with gentrification and its impact on our East African community are explored as two teenage boys navigate the city to deliver a crucial and time-sensitive package to a friend. 2022 Seattle International Film Festival Golden Space Needle Award-Best Film.

I Heard it Through the Grapevine (1982)

JUN 30 • UPTOWN

James Baldwin retraces his time in the South during the Civil Rights Movement, reflecting with his trademark brilliance and insight on the passage of more than two decades.

Evil Does Not Exist

NOW PLAYING • EGYPTIAN
OPENS JUN 7 • UPTOWN

After finally breaking through in the U.S. with the Oscar®-winning Drive My Car, filmmaker Ryūsuke Hamaguchi turns his eye to Mizubiki, a remote lakeside village that's about to be overtaken by a new "glamping" site built on sensitive natural land.

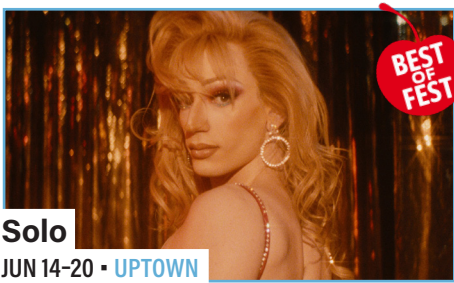

SIFF MOVIE CLUB

But I'm a Cheerleader (1999)

JUN 5 • UPTOWN

This whimsically edgy comedy follows teenager Megan, whose suburban existence filled with friends, cheerleading, and all-American fun is upended when her straight-laced parents suspect she may be a lesbian. Introduced by SIFF Graphic Design Manager and queer film aficionado Rhys Iliakis. New 4K restoration.

Solo

JUN 14-20 • UPTOWN

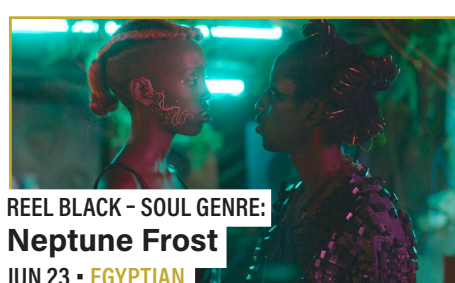

In this vibrant drama about finding your chosen family, an up-and-coming Montreal drag queen falls in love with a new French performer, only for his life to turn upside-down when his estranged mother comes back into his life. Winner of Best Canadian Feature at TIFF 2023.

Purple Rain

JUN 7 • EGYPTIAN

Celebrate Prince's birthday with this special presentation of Purple Rain. Winner of Grammy and Academy Awards for its pulsating song score, experience the electrifying movie debut of Prince as the Kid, a Minneapolis club musician as alienated as he is talented. New 4K restoration.

REEL BLACK - SOUL GENRE:

Neptune Frost

JUN 23 • EGYPTIAN

A group of escaped coltan miners forms an anti-colonialist computer hacker collective in the hilltops of Burundi. They soon attempt a takeover of the authoritarian regime that's exploiting the region's natural resources—and its people.

Peppermint Candy (1999)

JUN 14-20 • UPTOWN

Youngho (Sul Kyung-gu) stares down an oncoming train as twenty years of his life flashes before his eyes. Proceeding to move backward in time, the film rewinds his loss of humanity—from his self-hating middle age through his callow teens—mirroring South Korea's traumatic political history. New 4K restoration.

Oasis (2002)

JUN 14-20 • UPTOWN

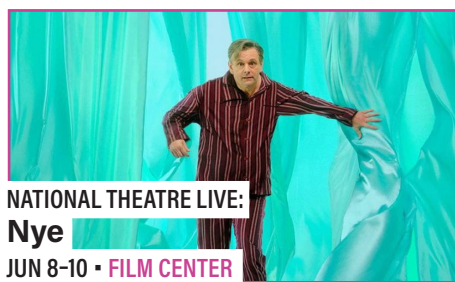

Fresh out of prison, Hong Jong-du (Sul Kyung-gu) finds and unlikely soulmate in Gong-ju (Moon So-ri), the disabled daughter of the victim of the hit-and-run for which he went to jail. New 4K restoration.

Kinds of Kindness

OPENS JUN 27 • EGYPTIAN

A triptych fable, following a man without choice who tries to take control of his own life; a policeman who is alarmed that his wife, missing-at-sea, has returned; and a woman determined to find a specific someone with a special ability, who is destined to become a prodigious spiritual leader.

Nye

JUN 8-10 • FILM CENTER

Michael Sheen plays Nye Bevan in a surreal and spectacular journey through the life and legacy of the man who transformed Britain's welfare state.

Poetry (2010)

JUN 14-20 • UPTOWN

Kind-hearted Mija (Yun Jung-hee) is tasked with raising her troubled teenage grandson, Jong-wook, while her daughter works in Busan. In denial that her caretaking is threatened by the early stages of Alzheimer's, Mija begins to study poetry at the local cultural center. New 4K restoration.

Green Fish (1997)

JUN 14-20 • UPTOWN

Released from his mandatory military service, Makdong (Han Suk-gyu) returns to a hometown he no longer recognizes. After rescuing a beautiful young woman from harassment, his life takes an unexpected turn when she unwittingly lures him into the criminal underworld. New 4K restoration.

Love, Simon (2018)

JUN 28-30 • FILM CENTER

A (very) rare major studio movie about a gay teenager, this adaptation of Becky Albertalli's YA novel "Simon vs. the Homo Sapiens Agenda" is all the more progressive for how familiar it feels, casually reorienting the time-honored heritage of American high school stories for a modern world that's more inclusive.

To Wong Foo, Thanks for Everything (1995)

JUN 28-30 • FILM CENTER

Three New York drag queens on their way to Hollywood for a beauty pageant get stranded in a small Midwestern town for the entire weekend when their car breaks down. The flamboyant trio shows the local homophobic rednecks that appearing different doesn't mean they don't have humanity in common.

The Right to Read

JUN 19 • UPTOWN

The stories of a courageous activist, a teacher, and two American families who fight to provide our youngest generation with the most foundational indicator of life-long success: the ability to read. Produced by LeVar Burton.

The Bikeriders

OPENS JUN 20 • UPTOWN

After a chance encounter at a local bar, strong-willed Kathy is inextricably drawn to Benny, the newest member of Midwestern motorcycle club, the Vandals led by the enigmatic Johnny.

D.E.B.S. (2004)

JUN 28-30 • FILM CENTER

Plaid-skirted schoolgirls are recruited by a secret government agency to become the newest members of the elite national-defense group, D.E.B.S.

Strange World (2022)

JUN 28-30 • FILM CENTER

Three generations of a legendary family of explorers will find themselves in an uncharted land with strange creatures. If they want to survive from the numerous dangers, they must bridge their differences and work together.
